

Brisbane-based Coaches

DR ANTHONY (TONY) DRAPER Tony gained experience working with international corporations in Canada, New Zealand and Australia for 17 years. His passion is working with clients who want to develop values based leadership. Tony uses leadership and coaching models, along with solid business acumen, to support clients in reaching sustainable solutions. Tony has coached executives in public and private sector organisations including Coles, Queensland Rail, Parsons Brinckerhoff, Patrick, Hutchinson 3G, AFP and DIAC. Tony is a Professional Certified Coach and Past President of the Brisbane chapter of the International Coach Federation (ICF). In 2005, Tony received the ICF Australasian Individual Contribution to Coaching Award.

JUDY McLENNAN Judy's coaching focuses on leadership, professional development, career review and transition, and well-being. She has been coaching individuals and groups in the private and public sector since 2001. Judy works well with complexity, enabling clients to clarify what is important. She supports clients as they re-evaluate how they work, develop strategies for change and then to take action. Her practical and grounded approach has been shaped by 20 years' experience as an Occupational Therapist and Workplace Health and Safety consultant to industry. Judy holds an Associate Accredited Coach (ACC) credential through the International Coach Federation, and is MBTI accredited.
