

Melbourne-based Coaches

LISA BAKER Lisa has a background in manager and executive roles in the telecommunications industry and commenced providing Human Resources and Organisation Development consulting and training services in 1994. With over 20 years experience in strategic planning, human resources and change management she brings coaching in organisations across a range of industry sectors. Lisa has an open, direct and flexible style focused on building relationships and partnering with clients to deliver quality results consistently.